COURSE SYLLABUS & OVERVIEW

What is the Basic Track?

This guide shows what is taught in the first stages of the program. The Basic Track helps students move from an absolute beginner level to a confident speaker who can handle daily conversations. This matches the international CEFR A1 and A2 standards.

Simple Monthly Billing: Even though the program is split into 3-month steps to help students learn smoothly, classes are billed month by month. There are no contracts or long-term commitments.

What Students Will Learn

Level 1: Absolute Beginner (CEFR A1)

Duration: 3 Months • Billed Monthly • Goal: Handle Simple Daily Conversations

- Alphabet & Pronunciation: Learn the correct sounds of English words and how to speak clearly.
- Everyday Words: Master essential vocabulary like numbers, time, dates, colors, family members, and common objects.
- Building Sentences: Learn how to easily ask questions and make simple statements in English.
- Real-Life Situations: Practice introducing yourself, ordering food at a restaurant, and talking about basic personal needs.

Level 2: Elementary English — Part 1 (CEFR A2)

Duration: 3 Months • Billed Monthly • Goal: Talk About Travel and Daily Life

- Talking About Time: Learn how to easily talk about the past, the present, and your future plans.
- Describing Your World: Use helpful descriptive words to talk about your experiences, favorite places, and people.
- Work & Social Skills: Practice answering phone calls, writing brief notes, and talking about your job or routine.
- Getting Around: Learn how to ask for travel directions, go shopping, and talk to a doctor using basic medical words.

Level 3: Elementary English — Part 2 (CEFR A2)

Duration: 3 Months • Billed Monthly • Goal: Gain Confidence and Independence

- Longer Conversations: Learn how to connect short phrases to form longer sentences and smoother conversations.
- Hopes & Future Goals: Practice explaining your personal goals, making requests, and talking about hypothetical choices.
- Understanding Media: Build skills to understand the main ideas in clear English audio clips, videos, and short reading articles.
- Fluency Practice: Participate in fun, interactive speaking drills that copy real travel and social situations.

Understanding Language Levels (CEFR)

The CEFR framework is an international standard used worldwide to describe how well a person speaks a foreign language, ranging from A1 (Beginner) to C2 (Native Level).

Level	Title	What a student can do:
A1	Beginner	Understand and use simple everyday words and basic phrases to express simple needs.
A2	Elementary	Understand simple sentences about daily life, family, shopping, work, and local geography.
B1	Intermediate	Deal with travel situations and talk about familiar topics like work, school, hobbies, and personal dreams.
B2	Upper Intermediate	Understand the main points of complex reading texts and speak fluidly with native speakers without stress.
C1	Advanced	Understand long, difficult texts. Speak fluently, naturally, and spontaneously for social, professional, or school purposes.
C2	Proficient	Understand almost everything heard or read with ease. Speak perfectly and express subtle shades of meaning clearly.
